Serve in Boston

2018 Non-Profit Board Recruitment Fair

Presented By the Harvard Club of Boston, the Harvard Alumni Association, and the Center for Public Interest Careers

Harvard Club of Boston 374 Commonwealth Avenue Boston, MA 02115
The Center for Public Interest Careers (CPIC), the Harvard Club of Boston, and the Harvard Alumni Association extend our warmest welcome to the attendees of the annual Harvard Non-Profit Board Recruitment Fair!

Below, you’ll find brief descriptions and contact information for each organization. We hope you enjoy familiarizing yourself with the work of these organizations. Please note that while CPIC reached out to a wide-range of organizations to participate, not all of the registered organizations have worked with CPIC in the past. CPIC cannot guarantee or endorse the work of specific organizations, so attendees should note that they are responsible for exercising their own due diligence if making a commitment to a particular organization.

Safe Havens Interfaith Partnership Against Domestic Violence
Safe Havens (SH) is a multi-religious organization that works to build a world where victims of domestic and sexual violence (D/SV) and elder abuse (EA) find hope and justice and no longer have to choose between faith and safety. Working as a bridge, SH strengthens the capacity of diverse faith communities and service providers to collaborate to support abuse survivors. SH develops and provides education, resources, and technical assistance for faith community members and leaders and for D/SV advocates. Research shows that victims of abuse often turn first for help to trusted family, friends, and faith community members who are closest to them. SH works to engage and empower faith community members in this "inner circle" to provide safe and effective support for victims and referrals to services. SH also empowers faith communities to leverage their resources and prophetic voices to play a unique and critical role in prevention and long-term social change to end D/SV and EA.
