

Urgent Need for Harvard Undergraduate and Graduate Tutors in All Subjects for Local High School Students!

The transition to remote/hybrid teaching and learning has presented challenges, especially for high school students. Can you help local high school students stay on top of their learning?

The Harvard Ed Portal is connecting students from Cambridge Rindge and Latin, Brighton High School, Boston Green Academy, and the Mary Lyon School with Harvard undergraduate and graduate students for weekly tutoring.

You just need to have an interest in supporting a highschool student in their learning! Bilingual tutors are a plus.

Details

TIMING

Now through May/June 2021

COMMITMENT

Your time commitment includes 45-60 minutes per week on Zoom (scheduled by you and your high school student), and filling out a short review form after each weekly session.

SUPPORT

We will provide you a 30-minute training video and conduct a background check. You'll also receive ongoing support and troubleshooting as needed.

🚀 REGISTER ONLINE

edportal.harvard.edu

QUESTIONS?

Email Joan Matsalia at joan_matsalia@harvard.edu